Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Applicants' arguments, filed 12/28/04, have been fully considered and they are deemed to be persuasive to overcome previous rejections of record. Rejections and/or objections not reiterated from previous office actions are hereby withdrawn. Upon reconsideration, the following rejections and/or objections are newly applied. They constitute the complete set presently being applied to the instant application.

Due to the newly applied rejections, the finality of the office action, mailed 9/23/04, is hereby withdrawn. Also, the Notice of Appeal, filed 12/28/04, is also deemed moot. The amendment, filed 12/28/04, has been entered.

PRIOR ART

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 3, 17, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) and (e)(2) as being clearly anticipated by Wallace (P/N 5,494,794).

Wallace discloses human mitochondrial DNA and RNA segments which anticipate certain segments as instantly claimed due to including polymorphic sites as listed in the instant claims. One such segment is shown as RNA in Figure 12 of

Art Unit: 1631

Wallace which is mitochondrial sequence 3170-3229 of length 60 bases long and includes base 3200 as U, corresponding to t for DNA base type as in Table 1 of the instant application wherein asn is t at position 3200, as well as the alternative form in column 2 (as required in instant claim 3). Other segments are disclosed in Wallace as primers as follows: Column 15, line 61, bases 5898-5917 (including base 5912 as instantly claimed); Column 15, line 62, bases 5317-5333 (including base 5331 as instantly claimed); and Column 16, line 53, bases 242-261 (including base 247 as instantly claimed). These are also alternative forms as required in instant claim 3. Thus, several of the segments of human mitochondrial DNA or RNA as instantly claimed including primers for detection thereof are anticipated.

CLAIM OBJECTIONS

Claims 4-8, 15, 16, 18, 19, and 21-32 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim 9 and 10 are allowed.
